The Trustees of Journey of a Lifetime (JoLt) are looking for disabled and disadvantaged youngsters who could benefit from participating in a month-long, challenging "Journey of a Lifetime". We have already run successful journeys for more than 25 years to many different locations:

- July/August 1984 - Across Siberia, Mongolia and China to Hong Kong.
- July/August 1986 - Across the Australian Outback from Adelaide to Darwin.
- July/August 1988 - From Colombia through Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia and Paraguay to Brazil.
- July/August 1990 - Two groups (i) Across Canada ii) Zimbabwe and Botswana.
- July/August 1992 - Along the Silk Road from Beijing in China to Islamabad in Pakistan.
- July/August 1994 - Route of the Gold Rush from Los Angeles to Alaska.
- July/August 1996 - Central and South America.
- July/August 1998 - Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Israel and Egypt.
- July/August 2000 - The length of Chile.
- July/August 2002 - Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Thailand.
- July/August 2004 - The length of New Zealand.
- July/August 2006 - A Himalayan Adventure – North India, Nepal, Tibet and Bhutan.
- July/August 2008 - Through Southern Africa – Namibia, Lesotho and South Africa.
- July/August 2010 - Tip to Tip to Top of Borneo and Brunei

The 2012 “Journey of a Lifetime” will be to Peru, Bolivia, Paraguay and Brazil.

The group will consist of:

- (i) Twenty physically, medically, emotionally or socially disadvantaged youngsters from the UK.
- (ii) Seven experienced leaders, including two doctors.

Conditions for Qualification

The youngsters who go on JoLt 2012 must be:

1. Aged 14-21 years.
2. Physically, medically, emotionally or socially disadvantaged.
3. Excited at the prospect of travelling to distant lands.
4. Unlikely to have the opportunity to travel extensively without JoLt.
5. Free from involvement with the law or police prior to the journey for any offence which they have committed.
6. Not involved with drink, drug or solvent abuse.
7. Willing to actively contribute to make the journey a success, and likely to significantly benefit from the 2012 “Journey of a Lifetime”.

The Trustees are particularly interested in taking youngsters who have one or more of the following disadvantages:

- ◆ deafness or hearing difficulties
- ◆ blindness or visual impairment
- ◆ a chronic medical condition or reduced life expectancies
- ◆ physical disabilities which may or may not require a wheelchair (need to be reasonably mobile)
- ◆ not known normal family life
- ◆ struggled to overcome problems
- ◆ experienced neglect and abuse
- ◆ are young carers

Trustees welcome nominations of young people of every religion (or none) and of every race.

The Cost

Each person is given the challenge of raising £650 by their own efforts towards the cost of his/her journey. The remaining cost (approximately £5,000 per youngster) is paid for by JoLt. Major sponsors have included: The Clover Trust, The Hedley Foundation and Nexen Inc.
